

About the Club

Picture the scene. 1985, Soho. The epicentre of cultural movers and shakers in London, with film production companies and literary agencies on every corner – it was a square mile of art, overflowing with vibrant creativity. However, still a place where an unaccompanied woman would raise an eyebrow.

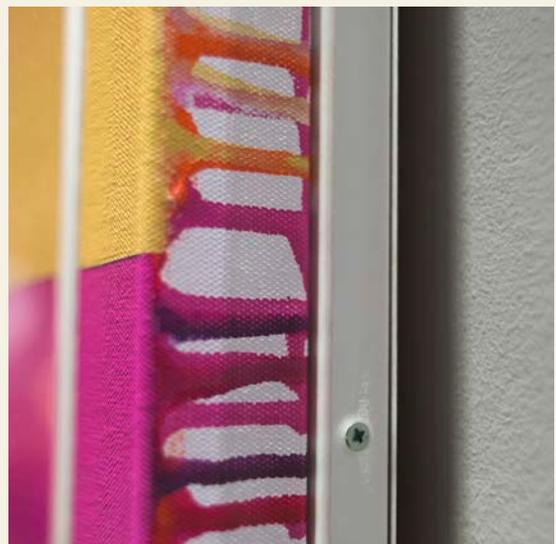

It was this that led to a pioneering group of publishers, Liz Calder and Carmen Calill alongside Ed Victor and Michael Sissons, to formulate a wild idea. They wanted to invent a new kind of club, a place where the creatives can mingle, unwind, and spark some serious magic, regardless of gender, a club anyone could apply to join based on merit, the antithesis of the stuffy gentlemen's clubs of the day. The blueprint for the modern members club.

And thus, the Groucho Club was born – with a helping hand from a few key individuals, of course (seasoned club owner Tony Mackintosh to name but one). Tony and his partners, architect Tchaik Chassay and wine merchant John Armit, got to work – premises were found in Soho and the doors opened on 5 May 1985 to a membership full of creatives, drawn from the arts, publishing, film, music and advertising, many of whom were working in the area. It soon became the approved watering hole for the creative industries, and with bars, two restaurants, private event rooms and twenty bedrooms, the Groucho Club became the benchmark for the new generation of members clubs.

Named after Groucho Marx's famous claim that he wouldn't 'want to belong to any club that would accept me as one of its members', the Groucho Club's witty, self-aware, maverick-mindedness was clear from the start. And from that moment on, the Groucho became the hottest ticket in town.

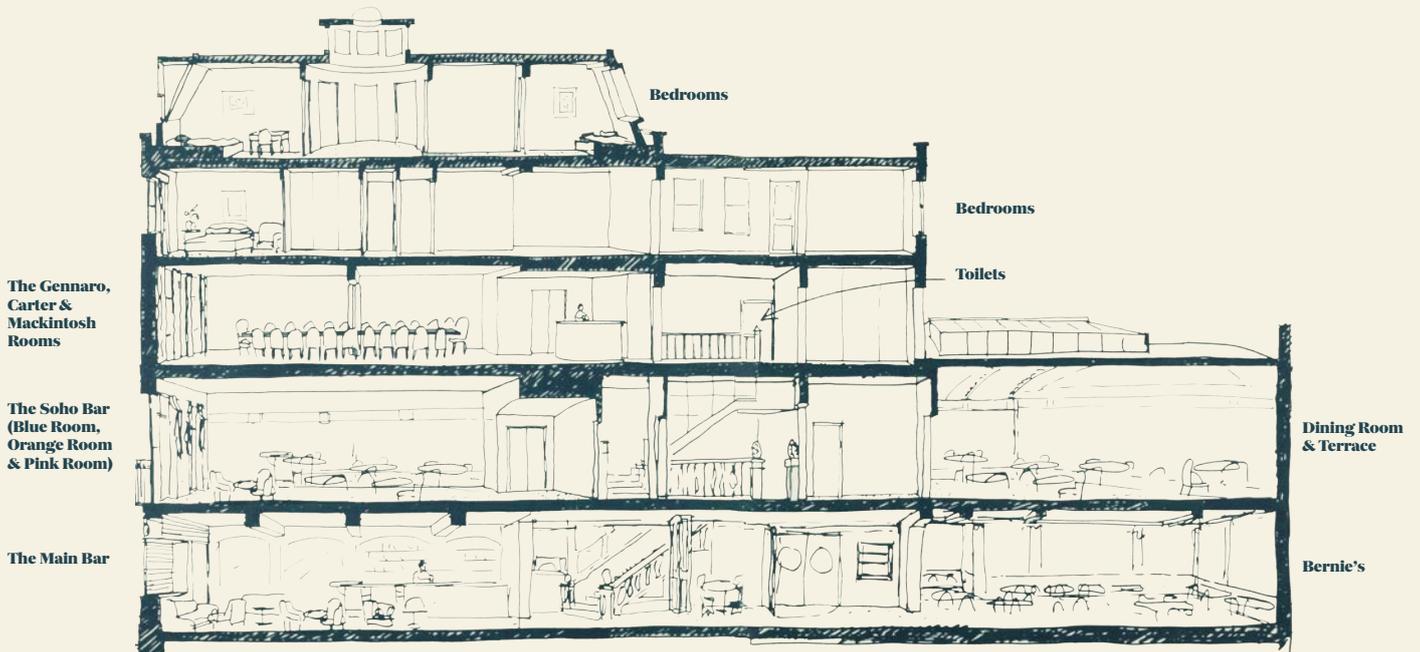

Conviviality and charm are the watchwords once within the walls of Dean Street, a haven where artists, actors, writers, and musicians can come together to let loose, share ideas, and maybe even hatch a few schemes. From legendary parties to intimate gatherings, from film screenings to impromptu performances, there's never a dull moment.

The walls are adorned with the great and good of the British art scene, the air is thick with laughter and conversation, and every corner holds the promise of something exciting. The club has been a long-time supporter of contemporary artists and their work, and as the collection swelled with artists and art world figures so did the membership. When the YBA's shot to fame, the club was associated with a new generation of Artists. The club's art collection includes an impressive anthology of British works from the late 20th and early 21st century, with Director of Art, Nicky Carter, presiding over a carefully curated yet ever-growing repository of fine pieces.

Over the years, the Groucho has seen it all. But for those in the know, it's simply home - a place where creativity reigns, and the chief order of business is having a grand old time.

The Second Floor

Featuring Artwork by Lauren Baker, Sir Peter Blake, Jonathan Yeo, Dan Chadwick, Mark Quinn, Mark Fairington, Natasha Law, Yinka Shonibare, Philip Colbert, Boo Ritson, Charming Baker, Tracey Emin, Chris Lavine, Jack Cardiff

The Second Floor

The whole second floor is a sweeping, versatile space. Combining three rooms – the Gennaro, Carter, and Mackintosh – throughout the day, it is bright and beautiful, flooded with natural light. As the lights dim and the sun sets, it settles into a warm and cosy ambience.

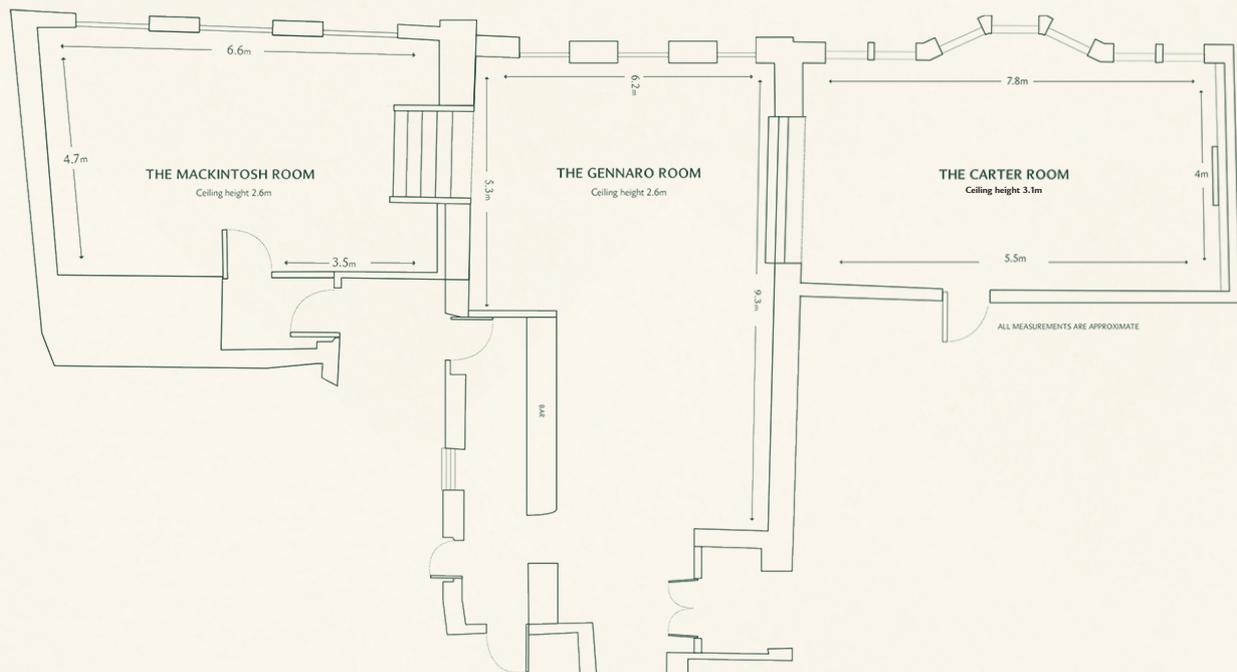

It's a space that is only as limited as your imagination – whether it's a dinner on long tables, a theatre-style panel talk, or even a wedding ceremony, the rooms are designed to accommodate wherever your flights of fancy take you. And not to forget, the second floor can play host to the biggest and best of bashes, easily welcoming 150 of your nearest and dearest (or simply those you want most to impress).

AV

- Projector screen
- Two 70" plasma screens with HDMI connections, and mini-jack connection to play music via phone/tablet
- DJ equipment available, please speak to an Events Manager

- Theatre | 90

The Gennaro Room

The Gennaro Room can be found on the second floor of the Club, overlooking the hustle and bustle of Dean Street. During the day, it is perfect for almost any permutation of meeting, seminar, or workshop, and particularly excels at the long lunch. And with its striking, full-sized bar, celebrations of all shapes and sizes find a welcome home here.

The name is an homage to the history of the building itself – it had been a restaurant since 1880 but was perhaps most famous as Gennaro's. Here, such luminaries as the Kings of Greece, Yugoslavia, and Siam dined alongside Caruso and Dame Nellie Melba. Gennaro would greet his guests at the door and present each female diner with a red rose.

The Carter Room

The Carter Room is named after Nicky Carter, our Director of Art and curator of the Club's incredible art collection. And as to be expected, the Carter Room itself is home to many of the jewels in the collections crown – from Jonathan Yeo's collection of Cara Delevingne portraits to a Tracey Emin, it's a feast for the eyes.

Seated, this room can accommodate up to 30 people, or up to 40 for a standing soirée.

AV

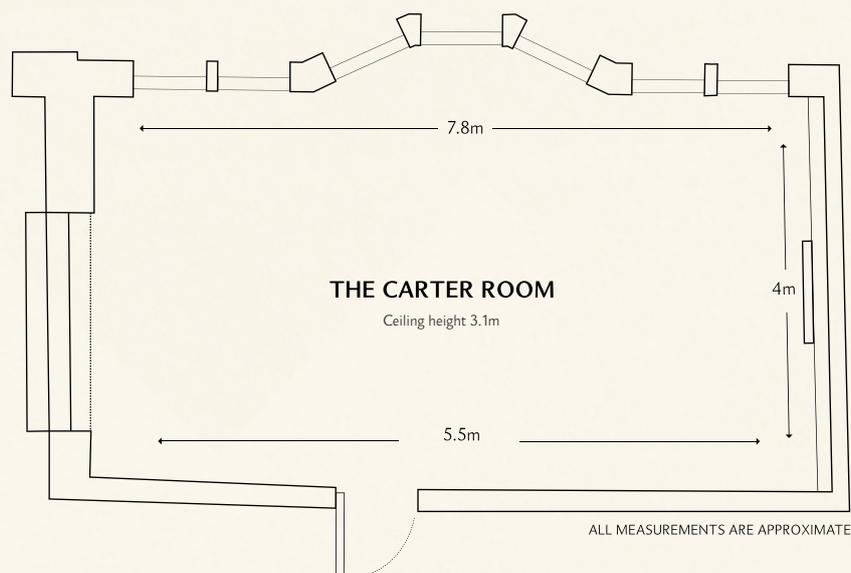

- 70" HD plasma TV, HDMI and iPhone connection, with other connections available on request.

Featuring Artwork by Jonathan Yeo, Mark Quinn, Dan Chadwick, Tracey Emin, Chris Lavine

The Mackintosh Room

The Mackintosh Room is named after one of the Club's founders, Tony Mackintosh of the chocolate family and The Zanzibar fame. The Mackintosh is an intimate room, nestled in the corner of the second floor.

Its intimacy makes it perfect for meetings, idea-sharing sessions, and creative conversations. Complete with our club snooker table, the table is primarily used for dining but can be converted for a game of snooker with ease.

AV

The Mary-Lou Room

The Mary-Lou Room sits alongside the Dining Room, with which it shares an interconnecting bar. A stunning fireplace is a central feature. When not reserved for private dining, it serves as an extension of the members' first-floor restaurant. With a grand long table and sumptuous armchairs, 20 people can gather for lunch or dinner.

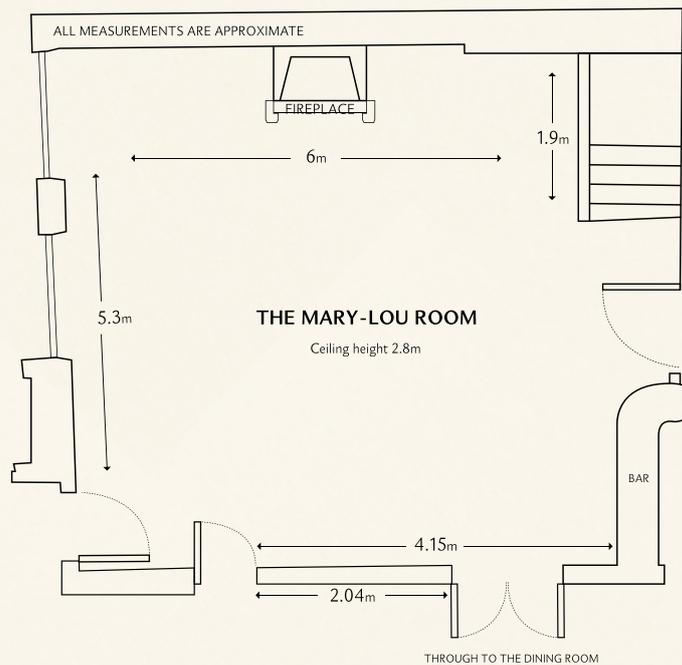

Named after Mary Lou Sturridge, the Club's Managing Director in the 1990s and co-founder of the homelessness charity Streetsmart, the room is as classically chic (with a hint of mischief, of course) as its namesake.

Capacity

- Seated | 20 (boardroom)
- Standing | 40

Featuring Artwork by Tanya Ling, Eddie Peake, Harland Miller and Christabel Macgreevy.

The Mary-Lou & Screening Room

Two spaces, one seamless event.

Conveniently linked by a private staircase, the Mary-Lou Room and Screening Room can be booked together to create a dynamic multi-space event.

Begin the evening with drinks beside Mary-Lou's roaring fire before moving upstairs for dinner, a screening, or dancing to a DJ. The flow between the two rooms allows your event to evolve naturally throughout the night, from reception to dinner to late-night celebration, while keeping your guests together within one private setting.

With flexible layouts, bar options, and music throughout, the two spaces can be used together to create anything from an intimate dinner and film screening to a lively standing reception across both floors.

Featuring Artwork by Sir Peter Blake, Miles Aldridge and Catherine Goodman.

The Mary-Lou & Screening Room

Event Options

Welcome Drinks & Dinner

- Begin with cocktails in the Mary-Lou Room before moving upstairs for a seated dinner for up to 16 guests in the Screening Room.

Welcome Drinks & Private Screening

- Host drinks in Mary-Lou before guests gather upstairs for a private screening for 20 to 30 guests in the Screening Room.

Two Room Reception

- A flowing standing reception for up to 70 guests across both rooms, connected by the private staircase and allowing guests to move freely between spaces.

Food, Drinks & Music

- Main bar available in the Mary-Lou Room
- Optional pop-up bar available in the Screening Room
- DJ station available in the Screening Room
- Food can be served across both spaces

Whether you envision an intimate gathering or a lively celebration, the Mary-Lou Room and Screening Room together offer a flexible setting that moves effortlessly from one moment of the evening to the next.

Featuring Artwork by Marc Standing, Mat Collishaw, Archie Franks, Gary Hume, Sir Peter Blake, Clare Woods, Tom Gidley, Rachel Whiteread, Des Hughes and Georgie Hopton.

The Soho Bar

The Soho Bar has played host to many a legendary party in its history. The bar itself is both beautiful and big – robust enough to handle the busiest of nights, but stylish and sleek at the same time.

The room itself is vibrant and eclectic, with soft, snuggly corners for secret conversations that sit at the edges of a disco-dancing dream. With a DJ on the decks to spin the night away and bartenders to keep the cocktails flowing, a good time is guaranteed.

As the Soho Bar is one of our members' bars, it is only available for private hire on Mondays and Saturdays.

The Bedrooms

Convenience should never be overrated, and one of the Groucho Club's best-kept secrets is the warren of 17 bedrooms that occupy the top floors of our Dean Street home. With everything from snug single rooms for a quick stopover to one of our largest double rooms with a wall-to-wall bookcase, each of our rooms has its own personality, and no two are exactly the same - except for the guaranteed-good-time minibar, of course.

Only available to members, their guests, and those attending a private event, it's an exciting and exclusive perk – drink, dine, and dream like a member, as all bedroom guests are granted access to the members-only areas of the Club during their stay.

Should you wish to book a bedroom, please speak to an Events Manager who can help arrange your stay.
